

OXPO/POLINE JOINT DOCTORAL SEMINAR 2011

“The Dynamics of Politics and Inequalities”

25-26 May 2011

Sciences Po
Room François Goguel
56, rue des Saints Pères (5th floor)
75007 Paris

Wednesday, May 25

2 – 6pm: Session 1. Class conflicts and distributive conflicts in Europe

Opening: Louis Chauvel (Sciences Po/OSC), Marie Duru-Bellat (Sciences Po/OSC), Nonna Mayer (Sciences Po/CEE, CNRS), and Tak Wing Chan (Oxford University)

Key note speaker: Stephen Fisher (Oxford University)

“The effects of the global financial crisis and recession on voting in Britain”

Discussion of two papers:

Hanna Schwander (Zurich University, Department of Politics and International Relations)

“What do outsiders want? Explaining welfare preferences in dualized countries”

Florent Gougou (Sciences Po/CEE)

“Cleavage Politics, Economic Crisis and Working-Class Voting: The Case of France”

Thursday, May 26

9am – 1pm: Session 2. Inequalities and politics outside Europe

Key note speaker: Michèle Lamont (Harvard University)

Discussion of three papers:

Pamela Irwin (Oxford University)

“Older single women and the risk of homelessness – The recession, inequalities and politics in rural Australia”

Malvika Maheshwari (Sciences Po/CERI)

“Craft’ing Resistance: Culture, Contesting Inequalities and ‘Hidden transcripts”

Sumeet Mhaskar (Oxford University, Department of Sociology)

“Examining Caste and Religion in Post-Industrial Mumbai. A Case Study of Mumbai’s Ex-millworkers’ Occupational Choices”

Pas de réservation

Entrée libre dans la limite des places disponibles

Contact : lucie.beraudsudreau@sciences-po.org